Letter From Jean-Claude

We give thanks to God for the work he has just accomplish by the presence of the 10 Americans brothers. Three from Laurel Church, three from Buckingham road Church, One from Lake Huston , Humble Church, Three from Fredericksburg Church.

It's thrilled me to read you again. I am more than convince that you will love to hear the result of the Lord's work. The Lord led the team from the begining till the end with 92 souls added into Christ and 258 studies and 4 restorations. We give God the glory and praises for such a mervelous work done.

Now all the Americans folks have left Cameroon, and they are almost to land in US, because it is presently 3.43 pm. Cameroon time.

I hope that all are well there, and nothing bad for now. Hope to hear that they landed successfully and found their respectives famillies.

We are fine, I have gathered some strength this morning and hope to start again on thursday as normal.

The Church gave me one day off to rest, but I am going to service this night.haha,

May God continue to grant you more love and hope to work together in the vineyard of Christ. It has been a pleasure for me to work with you again. I hope that heaven will be the final place where we have to meet and remember no more our burden while on earth.

My wife Cathérine and our three kids, Linda, Jim-Ella, and Reine extend greetings .

In Christ
